

I write to express my hope that Chairman Powell will delay action scheduled for this coming Monday on the media consolidation rule change until the consequences of such a change can be explored.

Thank you for your attentio